

Appealing Your Flood Insurance Claim National Flood Insurance Program

The National Flood Insurance Program (NFIP) provides you with a process to appeal decisions regarding your flood insurance claim.

After you receive your adjuster's estimate, you may have questions or concerns, or need further explanations of decisions that have been made, especially with regard to coverage or the dollar amount of damages. An appeal will help you resolve claim issues, but it cannot give you added coverage or extend claim limits beyond those in your NFIP policy.

Steps to Appealing your Claim

1. Talk with your adjuster

Talk with your adjuster first, who has more knowledge about your claim than anyone. They can help explain certain decisions regarding, for example, what is or isn't covered, or your damage estimate.

If you are not satisfied with the adjuster's answers, or do not agree with decisions, get contact information for the adjuster's supervisor.

2. Contact your insurance company

If the adjuster's supervisor can't resolve your issues, contact your insurance company's claim representative. Ask your insurance agent or your insurance company representative for assistance (Please refer to the attached list for a contact number for your insurance company).

3. Contact FEMA

If you still have questions or concerns after following steps one through three, contact the Federal Emergency Management Agency (FEMA).

Write to:

Federal Emergency Management
Agency-Mitigation Division-Room 433
Risk Insurance Branch
ATTN: Director of Claims
500 C Street, S.W.
Washington, D.C. 20472

Additional Damage?

If you discover additional damage after filing a claim, contact your insurance agent or company to file a Supplemental Claim.

What to include in your letter

Include the following six items in an appeal letter to FEMA. If for some reason, your policy is not available, your insurance agent or company can provide details for the first three items.

1. The Policy Number, as shown on your NFIP policy's Declarations Page
2. The policyholder's name, as shown as the Named Insured on the Declarations Page
3. The property address, as shown on the Declarations Page (Not your mailing address, if it is different from the property address)
4. How you can be contacted, if you are out of your home
5. The details of your concern (Please be as complete as possible)
6. The dates of contact and contact details for the persons with whom you have spoken in steps one through three

What to include with your letter

Enclose documentation of everything that supports your appeal. This may include:

1. A detailed list of damaged property and the value of individual items
2. Supporting photographs, and/or
3. A contractor's detailed estimate to repair damages, with supporting photographs. (Comparing contractor and adjuster estimates in detail will help resolve differences).

Additional Appeals Tips

Keep Records of Your Appeal

At each step, you should keep clear records of your attempts to resolve issues.

- Write down the names and titles of people you speak with; dates of contact; contact information; and details of the discussion.
- If you have to go further in appealing your claim, these records can be vitally important.

Send Copies, Keep Originals

- Please do not send originals of documents such as contractor's estimates. Send photocopies and keep originals in a safe place.
- Your claim will be reviewed and you will be informed of FEMA's finding directly, with a copy going to your insurance company.
- If you do not agree with the final decision, please refer to your flood insurance policy. See the GENERAL CONDITIONS, R. Suit Against Us.
